2009 Conference PowerPoint Presentations

All of the following PowerPoint Presentations are available in PDF. Proceedings can only be accessed with a Member Login. Nonmembers may join AZA at www.aza.org, or may purchase one or more proceedings by contacting AZA’s Membership Services Department at membership@aza.org or (301) 562-0777 x234.

2009 Annual Conference PowerPoint Presentations
September 13-17, 2009
Portland, OR

Animal Care & Management Track
• Training Zoos to Train Animals o When Animal Exhibits Come Alive, Megan Sanders, Cheyenne Mountain Zoo
  o Creating the Experience, Suzi Rapp, Columbus Zoo and Aquarium

• Safety Workshop – Meeting the Standards, Meeting our Needs o The Job Safety Analysis and Critical Mass (Staffing), Bob King, Smithsonian’s National Zoo
  o Safety Standards: Are We Awake?, Don Moore, Smithsonian’s National Zoo
  o Animal Transport Safety, Frank Kohn, US Fish and Wildlife Service

• PASA and AZA: Helping African Sanctuaries Create International Solutions
  o Introduction, Doug Cress, Pan African Sanctuary Alliance
  o Conducting Sierra Leone’s First Wild Chimpanzee Census, Dr. Terry Brncic, Tacugama Chimpanzee Sanctuary

• New Trends and Topics in Zoo Animal Welfare Science o A Comparative Approach to the Study of Keeper-Animal Relationships in the Zoo, Kathy Carlstead, Honolulu Zoo o Hunches, Intuitions, and Score Sheets: How to Employ Them to Improve Animal Welfare at Zoos and Aquariums, Jessica Whitham and Nadja Wielebnowski, Chicago Zoological Society-Brookfield Zoo
  o Aggression, Wounding, and Adolescent Male Chimpanzees: A Multidisciplinary Approach to Addressing a Complex Welfare Issue, Steve Ross, Lincoln Park Zoo

• Preshipment Testing and Disease Risk Assessments: How to Protect Your Animals Without Breaking the Bank o Disease Screening for Animal Moves, Bruce Rideout, San Diego Zoo o A Template for Pre-Shipement Planning and Decision Making, Bruce Rideout, San Diego Zoo o Assessing Disease Risk: How Do We Decide What To Test For? Dominic Travis, DVM, Lincoln Park Zoo
  o Using Risk Analysis to Better Understand Employee Risk of Contracting B virus from Macaques, Yvonne Nadler, Lincoln Park Zoo

• Collection Sustainability: Looking Towards the Future
  o Down on the Farm: The Potential of Regional Breeding Centers to Support Future Avian Collections, Bruce Bohmke, Woodland Park Zoo
  o Investigating Avian Collection Sustainability, A Potential Roadmap for Other Taxa, Sara Hallager, Smithsonian’s National Zoo Conservation Track

• Regional Collaboration: Diverse Models for Effective Local Conservation o Overview of Regional Collaboration and NW Zoo & Aquarium Alliance, Cheryl Hummon, NW Zoo & Aquarium Alliance o New England Zoo and Aquarium Conservation Collaborative, Jack Mulvena, Roger Williams Park Zoo
  o Zoo and Aquarium Partnership for the Great Lakes, Tom Adams, Chicago Zoological Society – Brookfield Zoo

• The Polar Bear Sustainability Alliance: A Collaborative Effort to Conserve the Species
  o Amy Cutting, Oregon Zoo
  o Randi Meyerson, Toledo Zoo
  o Holly Reed, Point Defiance Zoo & Aquarium o Joanne Simerson, San Diego Zoo
  o Megan Owen, San Diego Zoo
  o Diane Sanzone, BP Exploration Alaska

• From Species Recovery to Ecosystem Conservation in the Pacific Northwest o Oregon Silverspot Butterfly Recovery, Anne Walker, US Fish and Wildlife Service
  o Oregon Spotted Frogs and Western Pond Turtles, David Shepherdson, Oregon Zoo

• Improving Citizen Science Networks Through Engagement, Enthusiasm, and Shared Experience
  o Bridging Data Quality Needs of Scientists and Citizen Science Program Participants, Mark Plunkett, Seattle Aquarium
  o Applying Citizen Science Data to Short and Medium-term Activities and Issues, Jaret Daniels, University of Florida o Overview of Citizen Science, Abraham Miller-Rushing, USA National Phenology Network
  o Growing Participation in Citizen Science Programs, Shelly Grow, AZA

• Climate Change: Innovation and Collaboration in the Pacific Northwest o Reducing Environmental Impacts Through ISO 12001 and LEED Certifications, Heather Brekke, Vancouver Aquarium o Assessing and Reducing our Individual and Collective Carbon Footprint, John Houck, Point Defiance Zoo and Mark Plunkett, Seattle Aquarium
  o Climate Change Messages for the Pacific Northwest: Engaging Our Visitors, Kerry Carlin Morgan, Oregon Coast Aquarium

• Integrating in situ Conservation with Other Aspects of Zoo Operations o Conservation Leadership as an Organizing Principle for Zoo and Field Operations, Alejandro Grajal, Chicago Zoological Society-Brookfield Zoo
  o Creating Links Between the Field and the Zoo: Guiding Principles Help to Unite in situ Conservation Projects with On-site Operations, Richard Bergl, North Carolina Zoo

• Global Climate Change: Wildlife and Conservation o Affects of Climate Change of the Polar Bear, Jennie McNary, LA Zoo o National Public Survey of the Perceived Value of Zoos and Aquariums, John Fraser, Institute for Learning Innovation
  o How Can This Information Encourage and Help Visitors to Become Part of the Solution? Lee Bodner, ecoAmerica Aquarium Affairs Track

- Connectivity, Climate Change, and Corals – Oh My!
  - Economic and Ecological Importance of Coral Reefs; the Effects of Climate Change; and the Use of Aquacultured Coral in Reef Restoration from a Resource Managers Perspective, Billy D. Causey, Ph.D., Office of National Marine Sanctuaries
  - Rivers to Reefs, Cathy Sakas, NOAA

- Best of RAW: Improvise, Adapt, and Overcome in the Aquarium Community
  - Novel Prey Items for the Weedy Sea Dragon, Pyllopterix taeniolatus, James Clark, John G. Shedd Aquarium
  - Overcoming Budgetary and Time Constraints in Moon Jelly Production, Kirk Embree, Blank Park Zoo

- Best of RAW: Aquatic TAGs Moving Forward
  - Resorting Corals to the Caribbean: Project SECORE and Partnerships That Really Work, Ramon Villaverde, Columbus Zoo and Aquarium

- Working with NOAA to Interpret Oceanic and Atmospheric Research for Aquarium Visitors
  - Importance of Partnerships with Aquariums, Claire Fackler, NOAA
  - Exhibits and Outreach Events Between NOAA and Aquariums, Perry Hampton, Aquarium of the Pacific
  - Examples of Local Partnership Between Aquariums and CINMS, Laura Francis, NOAA

- Towards a Common Framework for Climate Change Action by Aquaria and Zoos
  - Building a Coalition of Aquariums Communicating about Climate Change and the Oceans, Cynthia Vernon, Monterey Bay Aquarium

- Sustainable Life Support Design Principles
  - Aquatic Systems Management, Juan Sabalones, The Maryland Zoo in Baltimore

Business Operations Track

- Embracing Diversity: Education for the 21st Century
  - Inspiring Conservation Leaders and Incorporating Diversity, Debra Kutka, Chicago Zoological Society-Brookfield Zoo
  - EIEP-The Emergency Immigrant Education Program, Heather Shields, LA Zoo

- Trends and the Impact to Zoos and Aquariums
  - How the Economy is Impacting Zoos and Aquariums, Kyle Burks, Denver Zoo
  - Revenue Trends 2009: How to Keep Revenue Levels Stable in a Bad Economy, Jodie Levey, Woodland Park Zoo
  - Fundraising in the Storm of a Recession and for the “New” Zoo and Aquarium, Dr. Bert Davis, Zoological Society of Milwaukee
  - Conservation Fees: A New Way to Generate Large Amounts of Money for Conservation, Steve Burns, Zoo Boise

- How to Hire and Train Employees and Seasonal Workers
  - Online Application Process: Going Paperless, Dustin Deschamp, Saint Louis Zoo
  - Integrating the Multigenerational Workforce, Steph Mizer, Columbus Zoo and Aquarium

- Message in a Minute – A Holistic Approach to your Conservation Message
  - Background for Message in a Minute, Lizbeth Ogle, Oklahoma City Zoo
  - Fundamentals of Interpretation, Teresa Randall, Oklahoma City Zoo

- RSP: Revenue Survival Plans
  - I am Sorry To Tell You...You Are the Last Zoo to Arrive: Another Way We Connected With The Corporate World, Aaron Cunningham, The Calgary Zoo
  - Animal Programs: Offering Guaranteed Experiences for a Fee, Roxanna Breitigan, Cheyenne Mountain Zoo Making Connections While Making Budget, Tracy Brower-Thessing, Cheyenne Mountain Zoo

Development/Fundraising & Membership Track

- Getting Great Grants!
  - Alignment of Needs, Rick Horton, Oregon Zoo Foundation
  - Strong Evaluation Plans, Monica Post, MPR Museum Consulting

- A ROARING Success: Bringing the Pride Together
  - Introduction, Karen Lloyd, The Oregon Zoo Foundation
  - Role of a Board Member, Suzanne Bishop, The Oregon Zoo Foundation
  - Zoo Volunteers Organize Their Own ROAR Campaign, Nancy Gunter, Oregon Zoo
  - General Curator as Fundraiser, Chris Pfefferkorn, Oregon Zoo
  - Broad-based Campaign Strategies and Employee Campaign, Bianca McCarthy, The Oregon Zoo Foundation

- It’s Easy Being Green!
  - “Green” in Membership, Bill Tortorici, John G. Shedd Aquarium

- Leveraging Public Sector Support with Private Sector Donations
  - Finding the Fit: Federal Dollars Can Grow Private Interest, Debra Kerr, John G. Shedd Aquarium

- Managing and Growing Endowments: Reality and Possibilities in a Challenging Economic Environment
  - Jump Start Your Endowment Efforts, Cynthia Holter and Jeffrey Bonner, Saint Louis Zoo
  - Zoo Endowments-Blessings or a Curse? Christine Zirinsky, Lincoln Park Zoo
  - Knowing Today’s Donors and the Implications for your Organization, Michael Wagschal, Bank of America/Merrill Lynch

- Members to Donors – Converting the Value Member to a Mission Supporter
  - Take the Leap and Reap the Soil, Bill Tortorici, John G. Shedd Aquarium

Education Track

- Advanced Inquiry: Deepening Engagement in Science and Conservation at Zoos & Aquariums
  - Chris Myers, Miami University
  - Ricardo Stanoss, Chicago Zoological Society-Brookfield Zoo
  - David Jenke, Cincinnati Zoo and Botanical Garden
  - Stephanie Stowell, Woodland Park Zoo

- Achieving Your Mission – Building Organizational Capacity through Staff Engagement
  - Inspiration to Action: Engaging Visitors Through Fully Integrated Program Planning, Becky Barker, Woodland Park Zoo
  - Mission, Messages, and Measures: Using an Evaluation Logic Model to Engage Program Staff, Jerry Luebke, Chicago Zoological Society – Brookfield Zoo
  - You Are the Mission – A Staff Training with a Big Impact, Kirsten Perez, Los Angeles Zoo

- Nature Education
  - Edifice or Artifice? A Designer’s Perspective on Nature Education in Zoos, Becca Hanson, Studio Hanson/Roberts
  - “Zoomazium” Exhibit, Kathryn Owen, Woodland Park Zoo

- Aim…Shoot…Score: Evaluating Guest Experiences
  - Evaluating the Guest Experience, Kathryn Owen, Woodland Park Zoo
  - Tweak, Tinker and Try: Formative Evaluation of Graphics for Oregon Zoo’s Predators of the Serengeti, Monica Post, MPR Museum Consulting
  - Taking Stock: Critical Assessment of San Diego Zoo’s Guest Experiences, Emily Routman, Informal Science Planning

- Building Stewardship Through Meaningful Play Laying the Foundation for Stewardship and Conservation through Play: The Importance of Guest Experience, Christina Klein-Ellis, Phoenix Zoo
Public Relations/Marketing Track

• Social Media in Action
  - The Evolving Role of Social Media in PR and Marketing, Ken Peterson, Monterey Bay Aquarium
  - Using Social Media Tools to Enhance Education and Outreach, Shannon Ricles, NOAA National Marine Sanctuaries
  - Social Media: Am I Doing it Right? Rebecca Whitham, Woodland Park Zoo

• Fulfilling Our Vision for Elephants
  - International Elephant Foundation: Playing a Key Role in Elephant Conservation, Deborah Olson, IEF

• Communicating Conservation Through Messaging and Advertising
  - Do Visitors Get It? Ginnie Westmoreland, Saint Louis Zoo
  - Conservation Messaging in a Recession, Heather Doggett, Riverbanks Zoo and Garden

• How to Build Your Brand and Increase Revenue Through Group Sales
  - Peter Fingerhut, Columbus Zoo and Aquarium
  - Doug Rickenbach, Naples Zoo

• Marketing That Matters: 10 Practices to Profit Your Business and Change the World
  - Eric Friedenwald-Fishman, Metropolitan Group

• Marketing Awards Winners and Creating Great Advertisements
  - Minnesota Zoo’s Grizzly Coast, Bill Von Bank, Minnesota Zoo
  - Dam Construction, Alison Swank, Knoxville Zoo & Frogs Forever? Campaign, Vancouver Aquarium, Sarah Kirby Yung

Volunteer Management Track

• Youth Volunteer Programs
  - David Kessler, Smithsonian’s National Zoo
  - Mari Otomo, Vancouver Aquarium
  - Dani Ives, Dickerson Park Zoo
  - Mary Corinne DeGood, Tampa’s Lowry Park Zoo

• Staff-Volunteer Relations from Recruitment to Retention
  - Rachelle Davidson, Vancouver Aquarium
  - Melanie Knight, Vancouver Aquarium
  - Randi Gonzalez, Cabrillo Marine Aquarium

• Building a Community of Volunteers: Making the Best Use of Your Most Valuable Resource
  - Randi Gonzalez, Cabrillo Marine Aquarium
  - Kim Haas, Woodland Park Zoo
  - Carol Preston, NOAA

• The Evolving Role of Docents
  - The 21st Century Docent, Regi Mezydlo, Chicago Zoological Society-Brookfield Zoo

• Volunteer Management Through Volgistics: Beyond the Basics
  - Stacey Luhring, Point Defiance Zoo & Aquarium

• Creating a Strong Volunteer-Friendly Organization by Being Your Volunteer Program’s Best Advocate
  - Promoting Your Volunteer Program with Executive Management, Regi Mezydlo, Chicago Zoological Society-Brookfield Zoo
Other Track

- Exhibit Design – On the Boards!
  - African Elephant Crossing, Steve Taylor, Cleveland Metroparks Zoo
  - Passport to Africa, Steve Marshall, El Paso Zoo
  - Wellington Zoo, New Zealand: Meet the Locals, Becca Hanson, Studio Hanson/Roberts

- Exhibit Design – What’s New and Innovative?
  - Rainforest Falls at the Buffalo Zoo, Donna Fernendes, Buffalo Zoo
  - Paws On, Jon Bragan, Brevard Zoo
  - California Trails, Rich Block and Alan Varsik, Santa Barbara Zoo

- Wanted: Zoo Director...Leadership for a New Generation...Traits for Successful Management
  - Economic Confidence Snapshot: Zoo Directors Survey, David Walsh, Schultz & Williams

- Going Green can be Good Business: Sustainability Planning as Policy and Practice
  - Philadelphia Zoo’s Sustainability Efforts From a Leadership Perspective and How the Zoo has Generated Grass Roots Support, Andrew Baker, Philadelphia Zoo
  - North Carolina Zoo’s Sustainability Plan, Development, and Implementation, Mary Joan Pugh, North Carolina Zoo
  - Green Education, Rachel Bergren, Lincoln Pak Zoo
  - Oregon Zoo’s Sustainable Visioning Workshop, Steve Chaney, Oregon Zoo